St. James's July 8.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to his Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Grand-Jury, Freeholders, Gentlemen and principal Inhabitants of the City of Cork, at an Aſſizes held for the County of the ſaid City the 9th Day of April 1715; was preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord-Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Madrid, July 1. On the 26th paſt arrived at Aranjuez a Courier with Letters from the Chevalier d'Hasfelt, Commander in chief of the Troops employed to reduce the Iſland of Majorca, adviſing that the Army having advanced to Alcudia, after the firing of ſome Cannon on both ſides, the Inhabitants obliged the Garriſon, conſiſting of 200 Soldiers, Deſerters of ſeveral Nations, and 200 Natives of the Country, to ſurrender at Diſcretion: In the Place were found 25 Pieces of Cannon, with very large Stores of Proviſions and Ammunition. All the open Places had readily paid Obedience, and 'twas believed the Capital Town would be reduced without great difficulty.

Vienna, June 29. Count Metternich, upon Orders which he receiv'd laſt Poſt, has declared to the Emperor, that the King of Pruſſia his Maſter having been informed of the Intentions of his Imperial Majeſty, was reſolved to proſecute the War againſt the King of Sweden with all his Forces, and not to ſuffer himſelf to be diverted from it by the Interpoſition of France: That accordingly his Pruſſian Majeſty was on the March in order to attack the Iſland of Rugen, and afterwards Stralſund; and that a Body of Pruſſians and Danes were to block up Wiſmar. This Court ſeems to be wholly taken up with Conferences about redreſſing the Diſorder into which the Finances are fallen by the eſtabliſhing of the Bank. For the Bank receiving and paying the Emperor's Money, and the Chamber of Finances examining Accompts and iſſuing Aſſignments thereupon, the Bank ſometimes finds Reaſons to refuſe, and often to delay Payment; ſo that it ſeems neceſſary either to increaſe the Authority of the Chamber, or tranſfer it all to the Bank. Count Wells, late Adminiſtrator of Liege, is deſigned for the Ambaſſy in Switzerland, in the Room of Count Trautmansdorf.

Ratisbon, July 4. Count Metternich, the Pruſſian Miniſter, has given Notice here, that the King his Maſter with his Army deſigned to be on the Pene between Demmin and Anclam on the 2d Inſtant, as the Daniſh Forces were to be on the Reckenitz at the ſame time, after which they would paſs thoſe Rivers in concert to attack the Swedes. On the 30th paſt the Count du Luc came hither in the Evening by Water, and proceeded on his Journey to Vienna the next Morning very early, without entring into the Town. 'Tis ſuppoſed the preſent ſituation of the Swediſh Affairs in Pomerania has made him haſten to the Imperial Court, without going firſt to Paris as was expected. M. Boſen, the Miniſter of Saxony, is appointed to go to Vienna, to receive the Inveſtiture for that Electorate in the room of M. Wackerbart, who commands the King of Poland's Forces in Pomerania.

Hambourg July 9. The Daniſh Army having left a Garriſon of 1200 Men in Roſtock for the Security of the Magazines, was to have decamped from thence on the 4th Inſtant; but for want of being timely ſupplied with Ammunition Bread by the Undertakers, was obliged to halt till the 6th; and that Army is ſince advanced in two Marches to Damgarten. The Swedes who ſeemed to have determined to defend that Paſs, which is of great Importance, abandoned it and ſeveral other Poſts. The Pruſſian Army encamped on the 6th Inſtant at Tritland, and the next Day at Petkaw. His Pruſſian Majeſty has ſent for the Battallion of Heide from Berlin to join his Army. Beſides the 8000 Saxons which are already in Pomerania General Bauditz has received Order from the King of Poland to march thither with three Regiments of Horſe. 'Tis adviſed from Copenhagen, that Vice-Admiral Scheſtedt would be ready to ſail on the 8th with the Squadron under his Command for Pomerania. Cardinal Schonborn ſet out from hence this Morning for Brunſwick.

Hambourg July 12. The Daniſh Squadron commanded by Vice-Admiral Scheſtedt, ſailed from Copenhagen on the 8th Inſtant, but at two Leagues from thence was obliged to come to an Anchor, the Wind turning contrary.

Hague, July 12. Orders are ſent to M. Lintelo, Miniſter of the States General, to go from Berlin to the Pruſſian Army, and thence to Stralſund, there to demand of the King of Sweden, on the Part of their High Mightineſſes, Satisfaction for the Ships taken by his Privateers from Subjects of this Republick. On the 10th M. Magis, Reſident from the Elector of Cologne, was in Conference with the Deputies of this State about the Evacuation of Bonn; that Reſident had before given in a Memorial, in which he repreſented, that his Electoral Highneſs thought that after his Return to his Dominions the States would have withdrawn the Troops which they have in Bonn his Place of Reſidence, and now hopes they will no longer delay doing it, becauſe that Place can no more be looked upon to be fortified, being laid open by the demoliſhing of a Curtain and of the Flank of a Baſtion behind his Highneſs's Palace in order to make a Garden there; the Ditches, Half-Moons, Covered-way and Places of Arms, being alſo laid into Gardens; that therefore his Highneſs expects the States will by withdrawing their Troops let him freely enjoy his Rights and Prerogatives in his own Reſidence. But their High Mightineſſes not being ſatisfied with this Memorial, perſiſt in requiring the Demolition of all the Fortifications of Bonn, purſuant to Treaty. Yeſterday the Emperor's Miniſter, and to Day the French Ambaſſador, were alſo in Conference with the States Deputies on this Subject. Beſides the Paſs-port lately granted to the Pruſſian Miniſter for ſending from this Country 14225 Cannon Balls, a like Paſs-port is newly given him for 6900 Bombs, which are to be conveighed from Weſel to Hambourg. The States of the Province of Holland are to meet on the 17th of this Month; and the Points on which they are to deliberate in this Seſſion were ſent on the 10th to the Towns; the chief of thoſe Points is the finding Ways and Means to re-eſtabliſh the Finances on a good Foot, ſo as that Arrears may be paid, and the publick Credit reſtored. All the 4 Deputies for ſettling the Barrier-Treaty are returned from Antwerp.

St. James's, July 5. This Day Comte Efferen, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector Palatine, had a private Audience of Leave of his Majeſty.

As had alſo, the ſame Day, Baron d'Imhoff Envoy from the Duke of Wolfembottel. They were introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

They were afterwards conducted to private Audiences of Leave of their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, by the Maſter of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, July 7. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint

Lieutenant-General George Carpenter to be his Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Emperor of Germany.
